Gambling with the Future? Major 1 Day Conference

Money Advice Scotland is hosting a major conference on 16 March 2012, held in Glasgow, on the topic of Gambling-related harm and debt. The Conference, is a MUST ATTEND event, and the first of its kind in Scotland. It will be chaired by Liz Barclay, Journalist, who is also an Ambassador for the Money Advice Trust. We are delighted to announce that Kenny MacAskill the Cabinet Secretary for Justice has agreed to open our Conference. Other speakers invited include representatives from the industry, treatment organisations, health specialists and money advice. The event is supported by the Responsible Gambling Fund and sponsored by Experian and Stirling Toner.

Key outcomes from the conference include:

1. Increased awareness among Scottish community organisations, and others within the UK, about gambling-related harm and links to other health and social issues
2. An improved understanding by attendees of the types of support available in Scotland, and their potential role in working to prevent and minimise gambling-related harm.
